Dear Parents/Carers,

Rice Lane will be taking part in the 2022 Now Festival on February 3rd 2022 at the Black-E at 6pm. The pieces you will see at the festival are created by the children and young people themselves. Each evening will showcase pieces from primary, secondary and special schools, as well as youth and voluntary organisations. The festival will take showcase their pieces all around the theme of Mental Health and "What needs to change to bounce forwards?"

This year there will also have a very exciting guest performance from Wired Aerial Theatre who will be performing their piece of "Me vs Me".

On the day of the event, the children will be attending a rehearsal from 11.00am-12pm. This will take place during the school day and we will be responsible for all transportation to/from the venue. Children should bring a packed lunch to school and if they are eligible for a free school meal then we will provide a packed lunch for them.

The live event itself will then take place on the evening of February 3rd, from 6pm until 8.45pm (estimated finish time). In order to start promptly, the event organisers have asked for all performing schools to arrive by 5pm. We therefore ask that all parents/carers meet us at the venue at 5pm and collect their children from us once the event has finished.

We are delighted to be performing in this event and we do hope that you can join us to watch our performance. Myself, Mrs Roach and other school staff will be there during the evening to look after the children and tickets can be purchased via the following link (make sure to select February 3rd from the options)
