Dear parents/carers

On Thursday 26th May 2022 a group of year 6 children will attend Alsop High School again to complete the filming for the transition to Y7 video they started in April. This will be filmed by Liverpool Learning Partnership and will be distributed to other schools.

The children will leave school at 9.30 and leave Alsop at 2.30. Transport will be arranged by school. Children should arrive at school at usual school time and will be back at school for usual home time.

Your child will need a packed lunch. If your child has free school meals and you wish school to provide a packed lunch please indicate below.

If you are happy for your child to attend and be filmed can you please complete the consent form attached.

If we can help you with anything please do let us know and thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully

The Year 6 Team
